KEYBOARD & MOUSE PRACTICE

Introduce Yourselves:

- Name
- Pronouns
- Computer familiarity/Interests

Objectives:

Check out the Community Workshop Series Workshop website to learn more about the program and find out about upcoming classes!

http://cws.web.unc.edu/

Last Updated:
13 June2019

USING THE MOUSE

Scroll Wheel

Right or ALT Mouse Button

Left Mouse Button

Left Mouse Button	Click once to select an item. Click twice (double-click) to execute an action.
Right or ALT Mouse Button	Click once to see more options. Double-clicking does nothing.

MOUSE PRACTICE

Mousing Around

http://www.pbclibrary.org/mousing/intro.htm

Mousing Around is for students who want a comphrensive overveiw of how to use the mouse.

Mousercise

http://www.pbclibrary.org/mousing/m1.htm

Mousercise is a simple practice for beginner computer users looking to use the mouse.

This is Sand

https://thisissand.com/

A visually gorgeous and relaxing game that lets you practice right clicking and guiding the mouse.

Koalas to the Max

http://www.koalastothemax.com/

This is a game that requires the user to click and hold the mouse. Every time a user hovers their mouse over a circle the circle splits into smaller circles until a picture is revealed. The end result is a picture of Koalas.

Fly Trap

https://minimouse.us/flytrap.htm

In this game, users play as a frog trying to catch flies.

Mini Mouse

https://minimouse.us/flytrap.htm

This site offers a number of mouse games that will help people practice. These are more active, faster pace games.

USING THE KEYBOARD

Fill in your keyboard with the new keys you learned about today.

We've also left some extra space so you can write down information about keys and keyboard shortcuts you think you will use the most.

Control keys

Function keys

Typing (alphanumeric) keys

Navigation keys

Numeric keypad

Indicator lights

KEYBOARD PRACTICE

Typing Club

https://www.typingclub.com/

A free typing tutorial that covers the foundations of good typing practices. Great for beginners.

Typing attack

https://www.typinggames.zone/typingattack

In this game you play a spaceship. Words are coming to attack your spaceship and you must type the words correctly in order to defeat them and defend yourself. This is a good game for people who want to increase their typing speed.

Desert Typing Racer

https://www.freetypinggame.net/play14.asp

In this game , you are a drive. Words are other cars on the road. If you correctly type a word, then you won't hit the car. Fast paced racing game that supports a learning typist.

Keyboard Ninja

https://www.typing.com/student/game/keyboard-ninja

This game lets you practice specific topics in typing (like home row keys,) while playing a game.

Typing.Com Games

https://www.typing.com/student/games

There are eight different typing games to choose from on this site.

More Resources for Computer Instruction

Community Workshop Series Classes

Chapel Hill Public Library

Wednesdays at 6-7:30pm

To register for class, contact the CHPL at (919) 968-2777.

Durham SW Public Library

Thursdays at 6-7:30pm

To register for class, contact the Durham Branch at (919)560-8590.

Cybrary at Carrboro

Saturday at 10-11:30pm

To register for class, contact the Cybrary at (919) 918-7387.

More Local Resources

Kramden Institute

https://kramden.org/classes/

Phone: 919-293-1133

Email: info@kramden.org

Hours: Mon - Fri 9am – 5pm

Wed 9am – 9pm

Orange County Literacy Council

http://orangeliteracy.org/

Phone: (919) 914-6153

oclc@orangeliteracy.org